

SCRIPTURAL CONFESSION:
Diligence

My hand is diligent, therefore I am made rich. Proverbs 10:4

Because my hand is diligent, I shall bear rule (while the slothful shall be under tribute); and because I am diligent, all that I have is precious. Proverbs 12:24, 27

Because I am diligent, my soul is made fat and my appetite is abundantly supplied.
Proverbs 13:4

I am diligent, therefore my thoughts lead only to plenty (while those who are hasty and impatient only to want). Proverbs 21:5

Because I am diligent in my business, I stand favorably before kings, not before insignificant people. Proverbs 22:29

I am diligent to know the state of my flocks, and I look well to my herds. Proverbs 27:23

I am a faithful man (or woman), therefore I abound with blessings. Proverbs 28:20